

Low Income Taxpayer Clinic

AppalReD's Low Income Taxpayer Clinic provides low-income taxpayers with expertise and advocacy in resolving tax matters.

The Low Income Taxpayer Clinic can serve people from any county in Kentucky!

Our experienced attorneys can help you with a number of issues, including:

- Levy Releases
- Innocent Spouse Relief
- IRS Negotiations
- Earned Income Tax Credit Appeals
- Tax Lien Resolutions
- Tax Court Litigation
- Identity Theft
- Provide consultations about a tax matter

Do you have questions about these or other tax issues? Call our clinic directly at 1-800-477-1394 or email our LITC Paralegal Tina Heiser at tinah@ardfky.org.

Although the AppalReD Low Income Taxpayer Clinic receives funding from the IRS, the clinic, its employees, and volunteers are not affiliated with the IRS. A taxpayer's decision to use the tax clinic's services will not impair the taxpayer's rights before the IRS.

Our clinic personnel do not prepare tax returns, but they can refer you to locations that will prepare returns for free.

LITC Pro Bono Program

Law students and attorneys interested in gaining tax controversy experience, while helping Kentucky families, should consider participating in AppalReD's LITC Pro Bono Program.

AppalReD's pro bono panel assists the tax clinic. Pro bono volunteers may work on site or remotely.

AppalReD represents clients before the IRS and Kentucky Department of Revenue. With regard to tax controversies in the United States Tax Court, AppalReD serves both the Charleston, WV and Louisville, KY trial locations.

Please complete the online volunteer application for more information.

The AppalReD pro bono panel is an excellent way for law students and attorneys to help families in Kentucky.
